

City & Guilds Level 1 Bricklaying (6705)

Who is it suitable for?

These qualifications are for those interested in a career as a trades person working with bricks and mortar in the construction industry, this qualification is the ideal starting point if you are wishing to gain some understanding and some practical experience building, design and construction.

What are the aims of the course?

This qualification helps prepare you for work in the construction industry, with a specific focus on bricklaying. You are likely to progress on to the Level 2 Diploma in Bricklaying.

What areas are covered in this course?

You will learn about health, safety and environmental issues faced on construction sites, and how to communicate with others on the job. You will also learn practical skills specific to bricklaying, such as setting out, bricklaying, block laying and building cavity walling. Will be assessed for the following units:

- Setting out and building of masonry structures
- Block laying
- Bricklaying
- Cavity walls
- Drawings and diagrams

The assessment will involve a practical task and creation of a portfolio of work.

What will I be able to go on to after I've completed the course?

You are likely to progress on to the Level 2 Diploma in Bricklaying. You can then progress on to study the NVQ, either as part of an apprenticeship, or as a standalone qualification. You may progress on to the following qualifications:

- 600/7913/7 Level 2 Diploma in Bricklaying
- 600/8083/8 Level 3 Diploma in Bricklaying

Want to know more? Please contact: drew.huxted@kite-college.org