

Employability Programme

CITY & GUILDS EMPLOYABILITY SKILLS QUALIFICATION 5546

Whatever vocational course you choose, employability will be an additional qualification. Your tutor will deliver units to aid in getting you prepared to progress successfully into the world of work.

Why is the course important?

Employability Skills qualifications are designed to support an individual successfully gaining a job, progressing in a chosen field, preparing the individual for further study and supporting the development of techniques required for successful independent living.

These qualifications are aimed at anyone who wants to live a more independent life, progress in education and/or their employment prospects as they progress along the career ladder.

The City & Guilds qualifications have been designed in collaboration with a range of experts from various industry sectors, training providers and employment and recruitment professionals to ensure the content matches what is needed and valued by today's employment market.

These qualifications can assist learners' chances of progressing in education and gaining employment in any industry.

What are the aims of the course?

The Employability Skills qualifications support individuals in developing the skills and attitudes valued by employers.

The aim is to help individuals successfully prepare for and get a job, then to provide them with the tools to succeed and advance in their role.

Qualification Levels and Definition

The Employability Skills qualifications have been designed with maximum flexibility in mind so they can meet all learner requirements.

These qualifications are available from Entry 2 to Level 2. A learner can achieve some units and claim the smaller Introductory Award, Award or Extended Award or continue and gain this Certificate/Extended Certificate or continue further to claim a Diploma sized qualification.

Assessment

Assessment is through a portfolio of evidence supported by internal quality assurance and external verification.

Want to know more? Please contact: reception@kite-college.org